

JAMES TIONO

DATA ENGINEER

ABOUT ME

I'm an undergraduate Computer Science student at Bina Nusantara University with strong interests in communication, data analytics, and problem-solving. He is proficient in developing data-driven and code-based solutions using Python, C, and SQL, and is seeking opportunities to grow through hands-on industry experience.

PROJECTS

Nov 2024 - Jan 2025

Data Structure Project

Car Wash POS System

An automated POS system to streamline car wash operations by improving transaction efficiency and workflow management.

May 2025 - June 2025

Web Development Project

E-Commerce Matcha Website

Online delivery platform designated to promote and showcase matcha products improving accessibility and customer engagement in the F&B sectors.

Mar 2026 - Present

Machine Learning Project

Promotional Videos Completion Rate Forecast System

Developed a machine learning model to predict video completion rates using Random Forest and XGBoost, improving predictive performance through model comparison and tuning. Future work focuses on examining the trajectory of video completion rate trends over time as a proxy for user engagement to support data-driven insights for advertising content optimization.

Body Fat Percentage Prediction Model

Constructing machine learning model to identify key factors influencing body fat percentage to enable more accurate and practical body health assessment.

May 2026

Data Analysis Project

Chronic Diseases Patient's Dropout Rate Analysis

Analyzing significant contributors for chronic patient's dropout rate in healthcare datasets, using data visualizations to derive insights for data-driven interpretation and decision support.
